

Working today
for the cities of tomorrow

Supporting stakeholders in the global South to achieve sustainable urban development

Urbaconsulting is a French consultancy firm created in 2006 that specialises in supporting stakeholders from the global South to implement their urban development projects. We work mostly in poor settlements and in fast growing cities.

WE DEVELOP APPROACHES THAT FOSTER THE PARTICIPATION OF ALL STAKEHOLDERS WITHIN THE PROJECT AREA AND WE RIGOROUSLY ADAPT OUR PRACTICES TO LOCAL CONDITIONS.

Our team benefits from a strong network of experts and partners, both in France and abroad, with whom we have forged special relationships. Our combined talents enable us to develop tailored solutions for our clients.

Our Values

INTEGRITY AND TRANSPARENCY

Integrity is a value that is shared by all of the people with whom we work. All of our ethical commitments are set out in a detailed charter. Tackling corruption is one of the fundamental pillars of this commitment, both for our team and for our partners.

ADAPTABILITY AND CREATIVITY

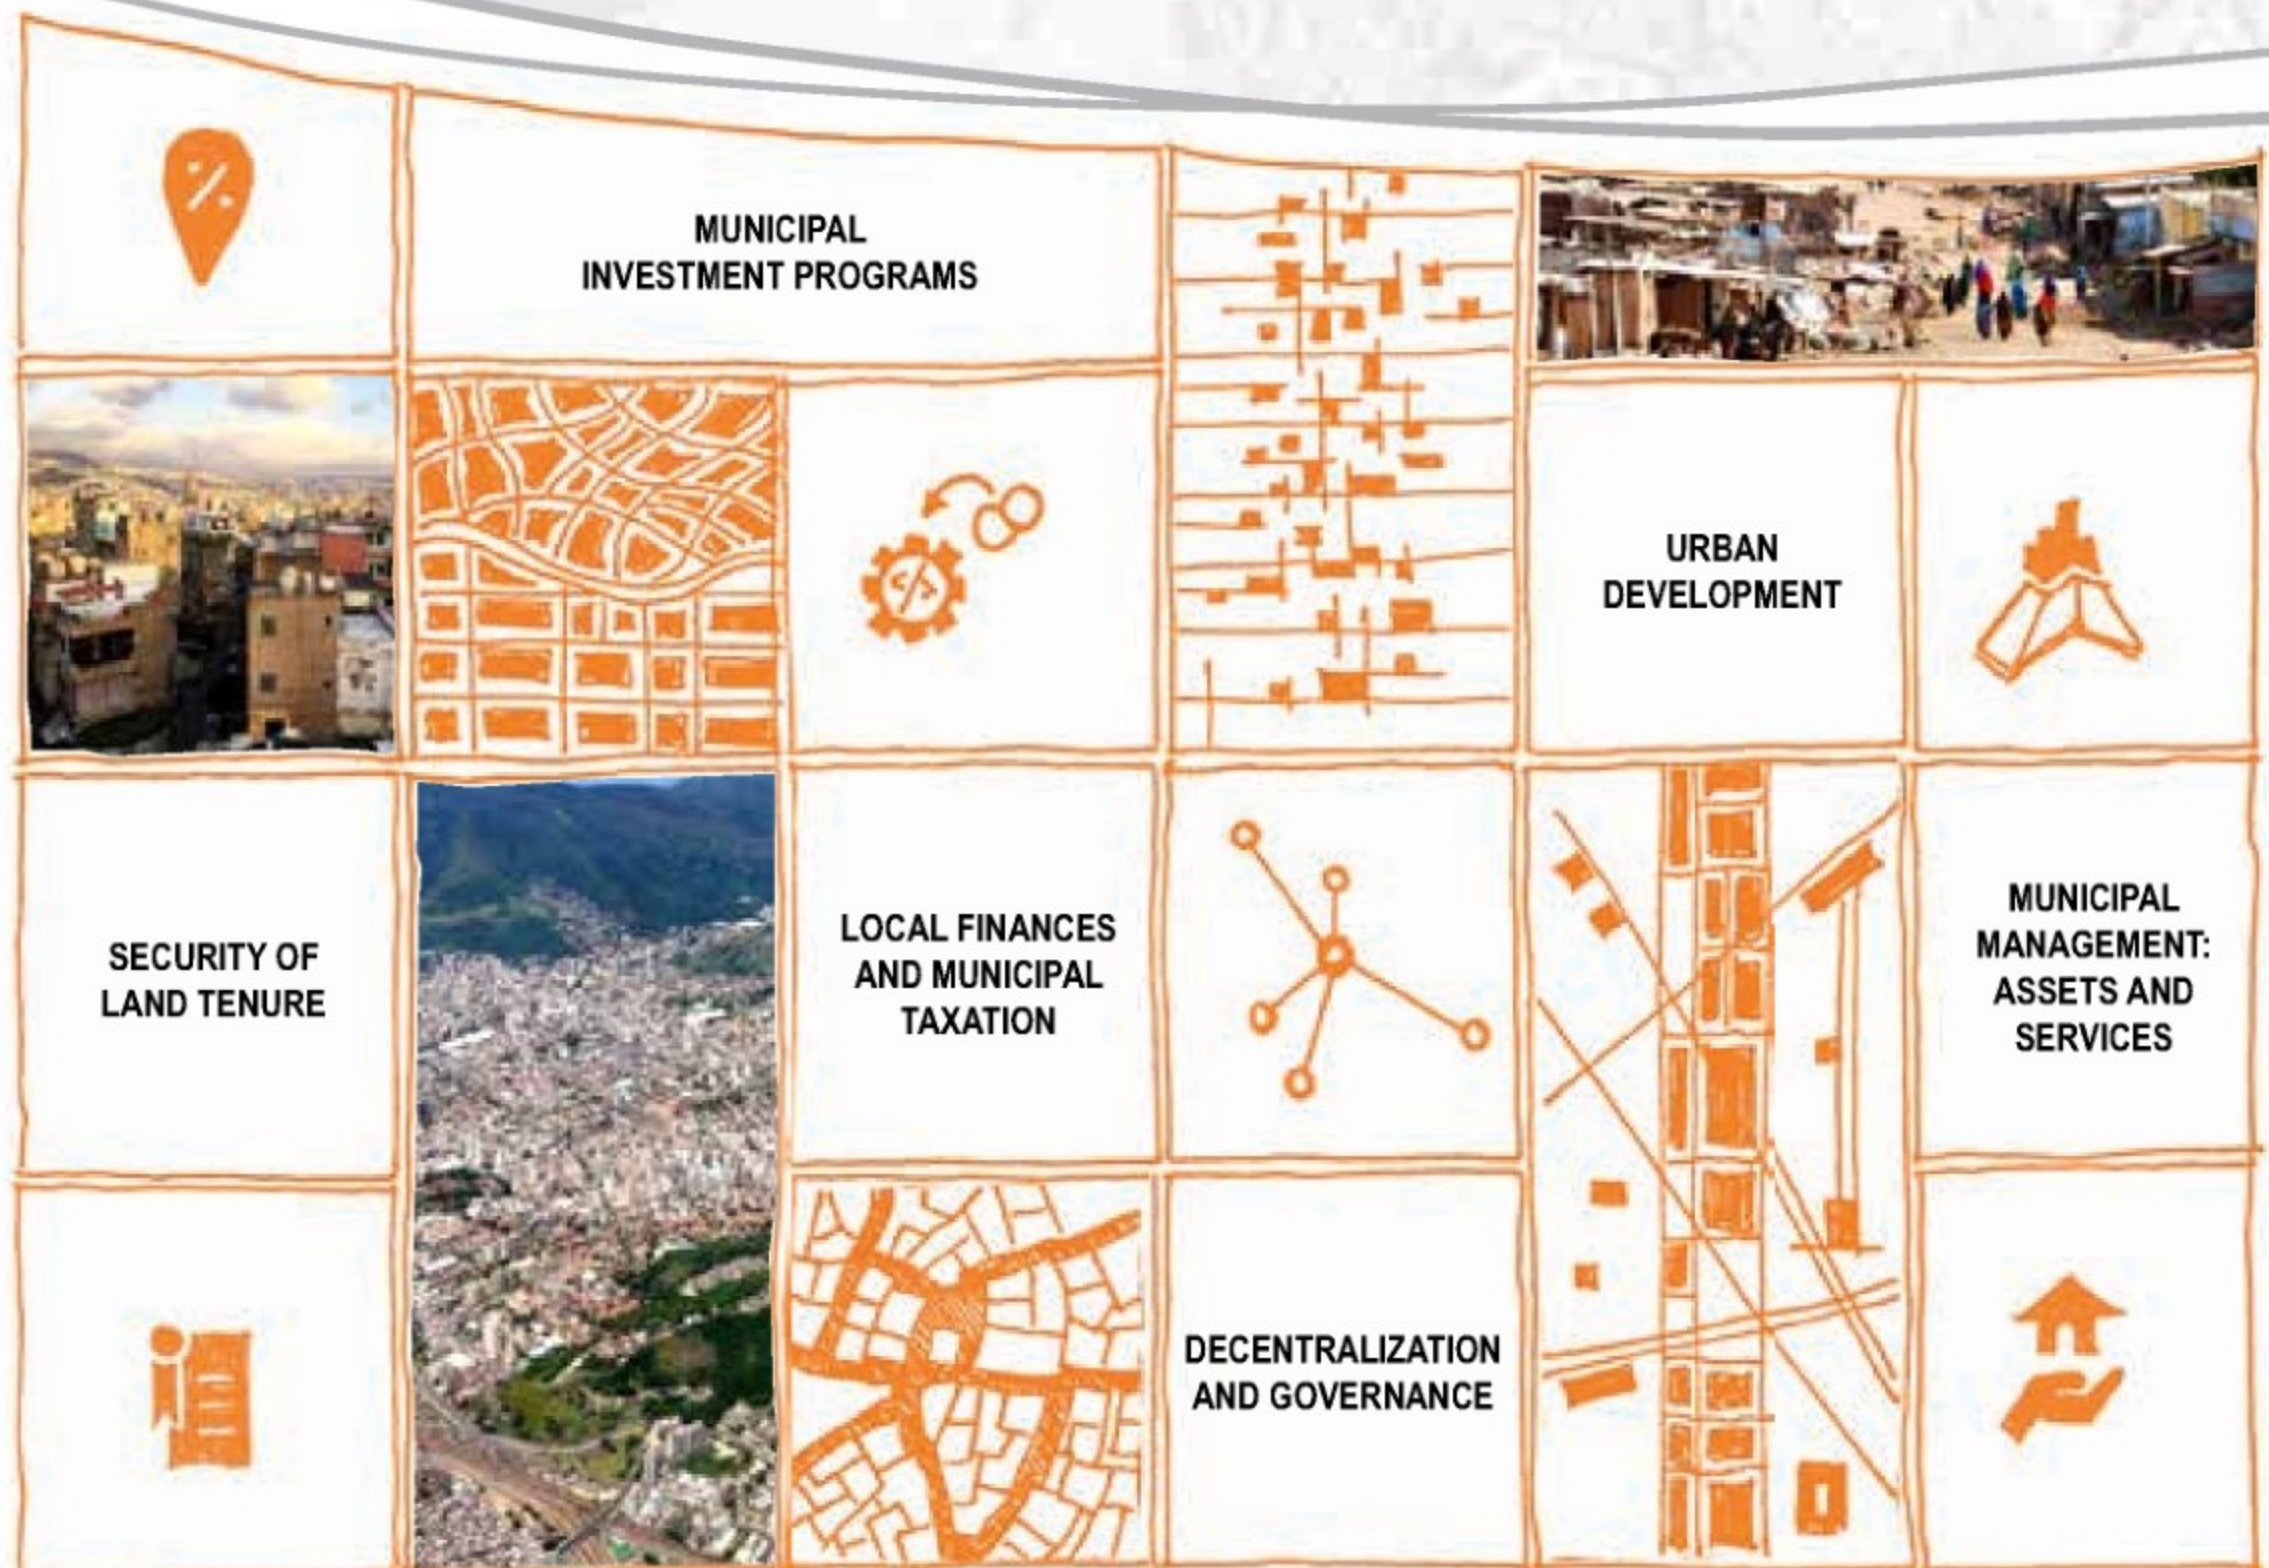

For us, each situation and each project is unique. The capacity to adapt and the creativity that the Urbaconsulting teams regularly display to appropriately respond to the issues and challenges of each situation have become one of the hallmarks of our work.

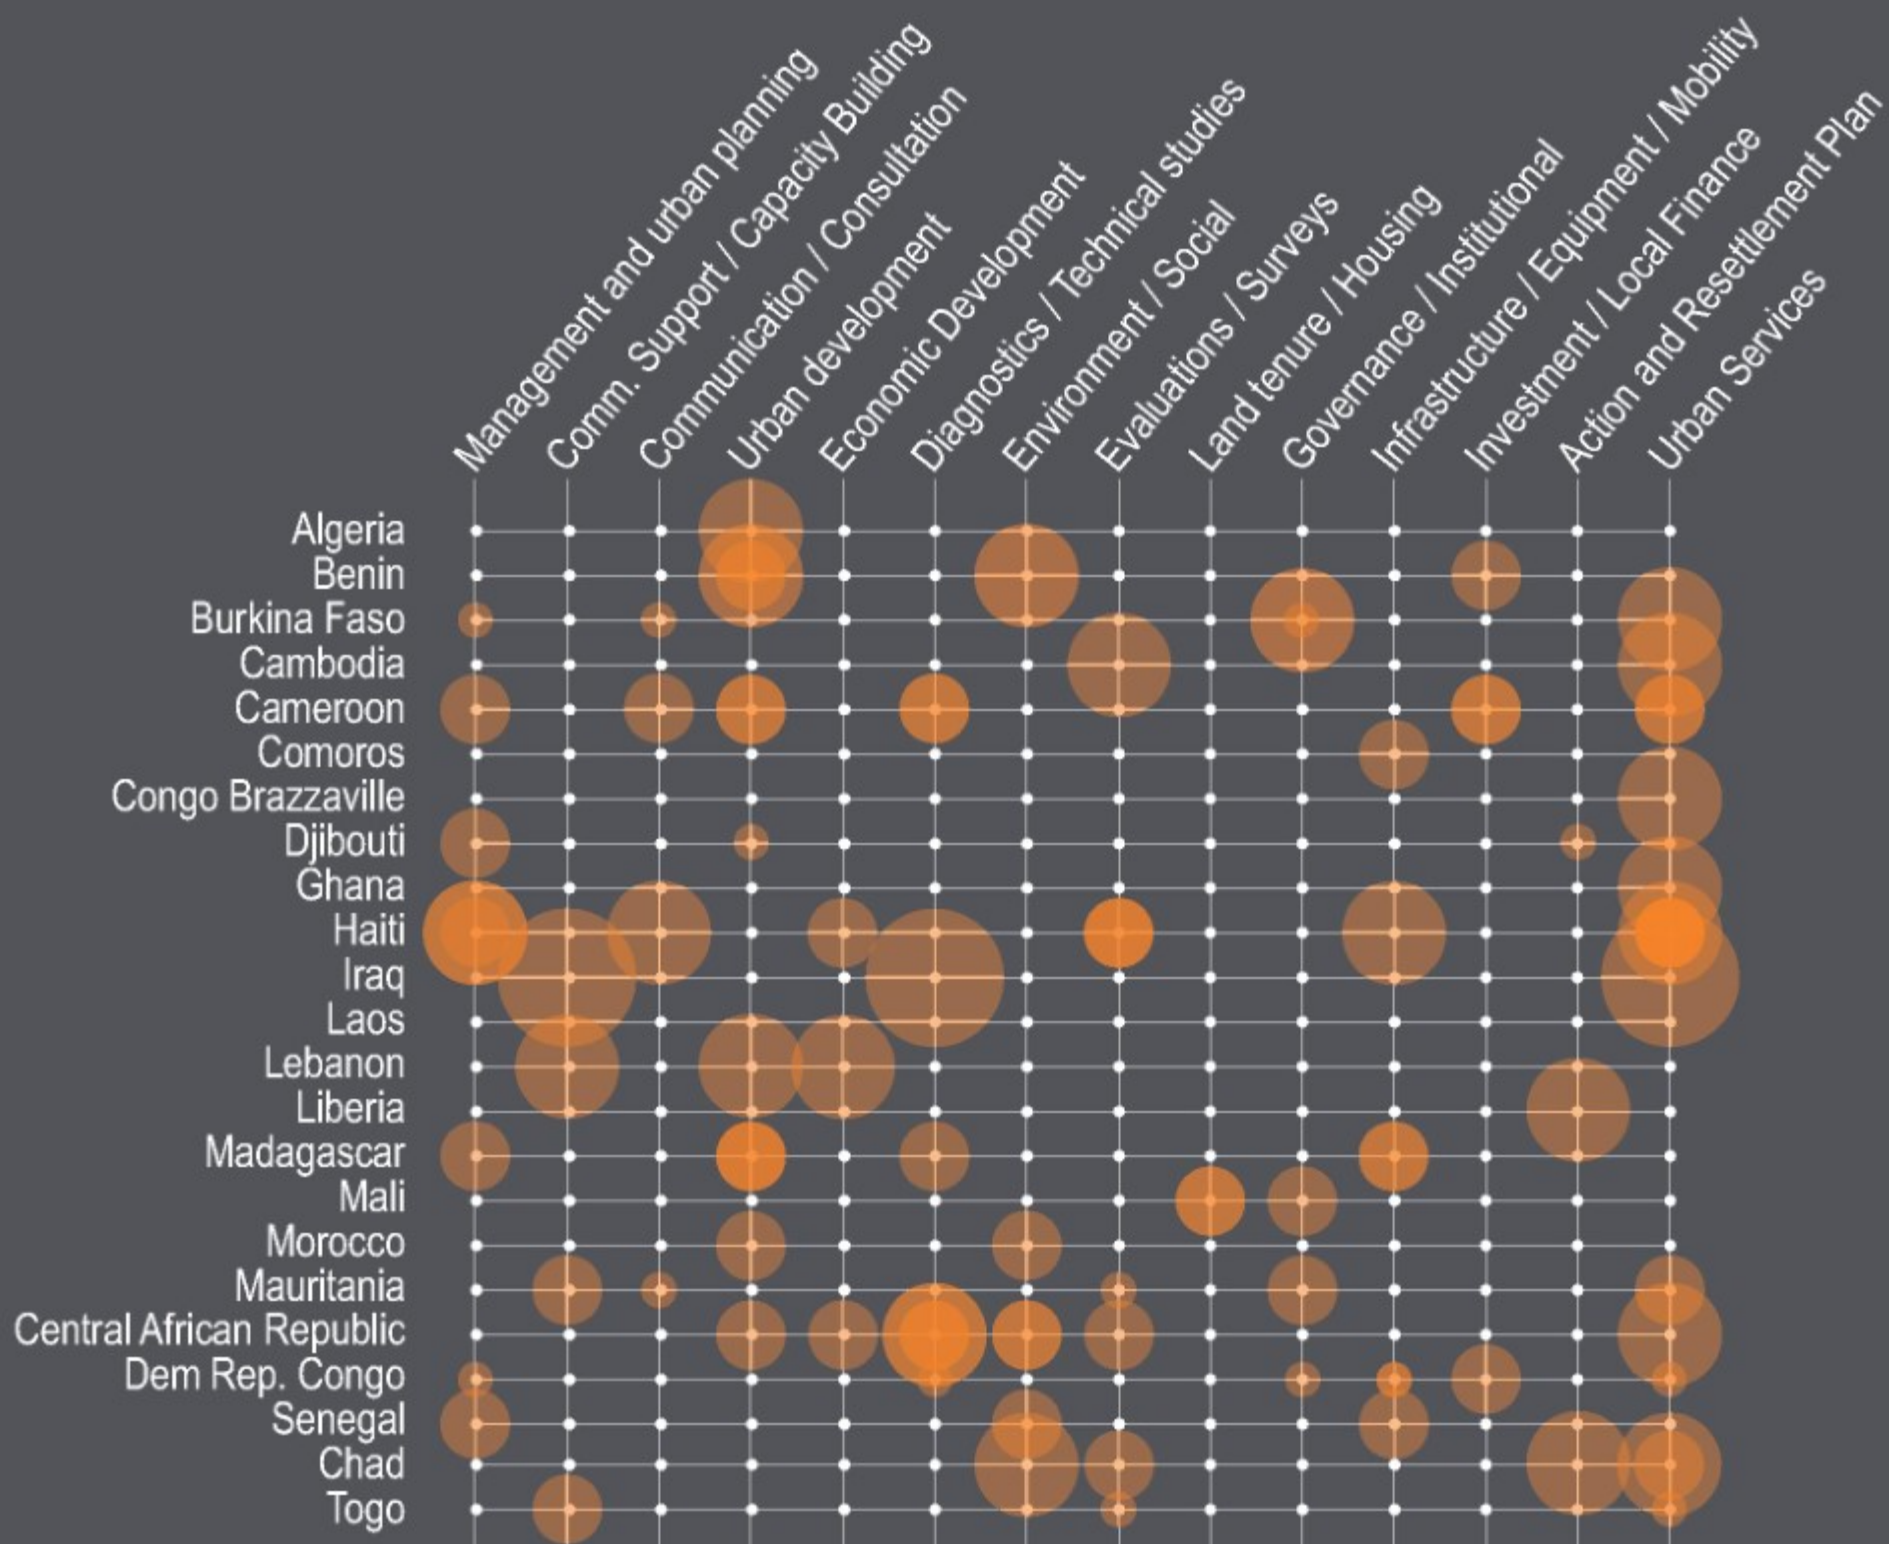

QUALITY AND EFFICIENCY

We provide workable and sustainable solutions and take care to ensure that, at each project stage, our approach is aligned to the environment, practices and habits of the local area. We undertake all quality assurance measures needed to meet our clients' requirements on each of our assignments. We are able to rapidly deploy our team, we commit to client timescales and to ensuring all deadlines are met, and we are able to ramp up the deployment of our staff should the need arise.

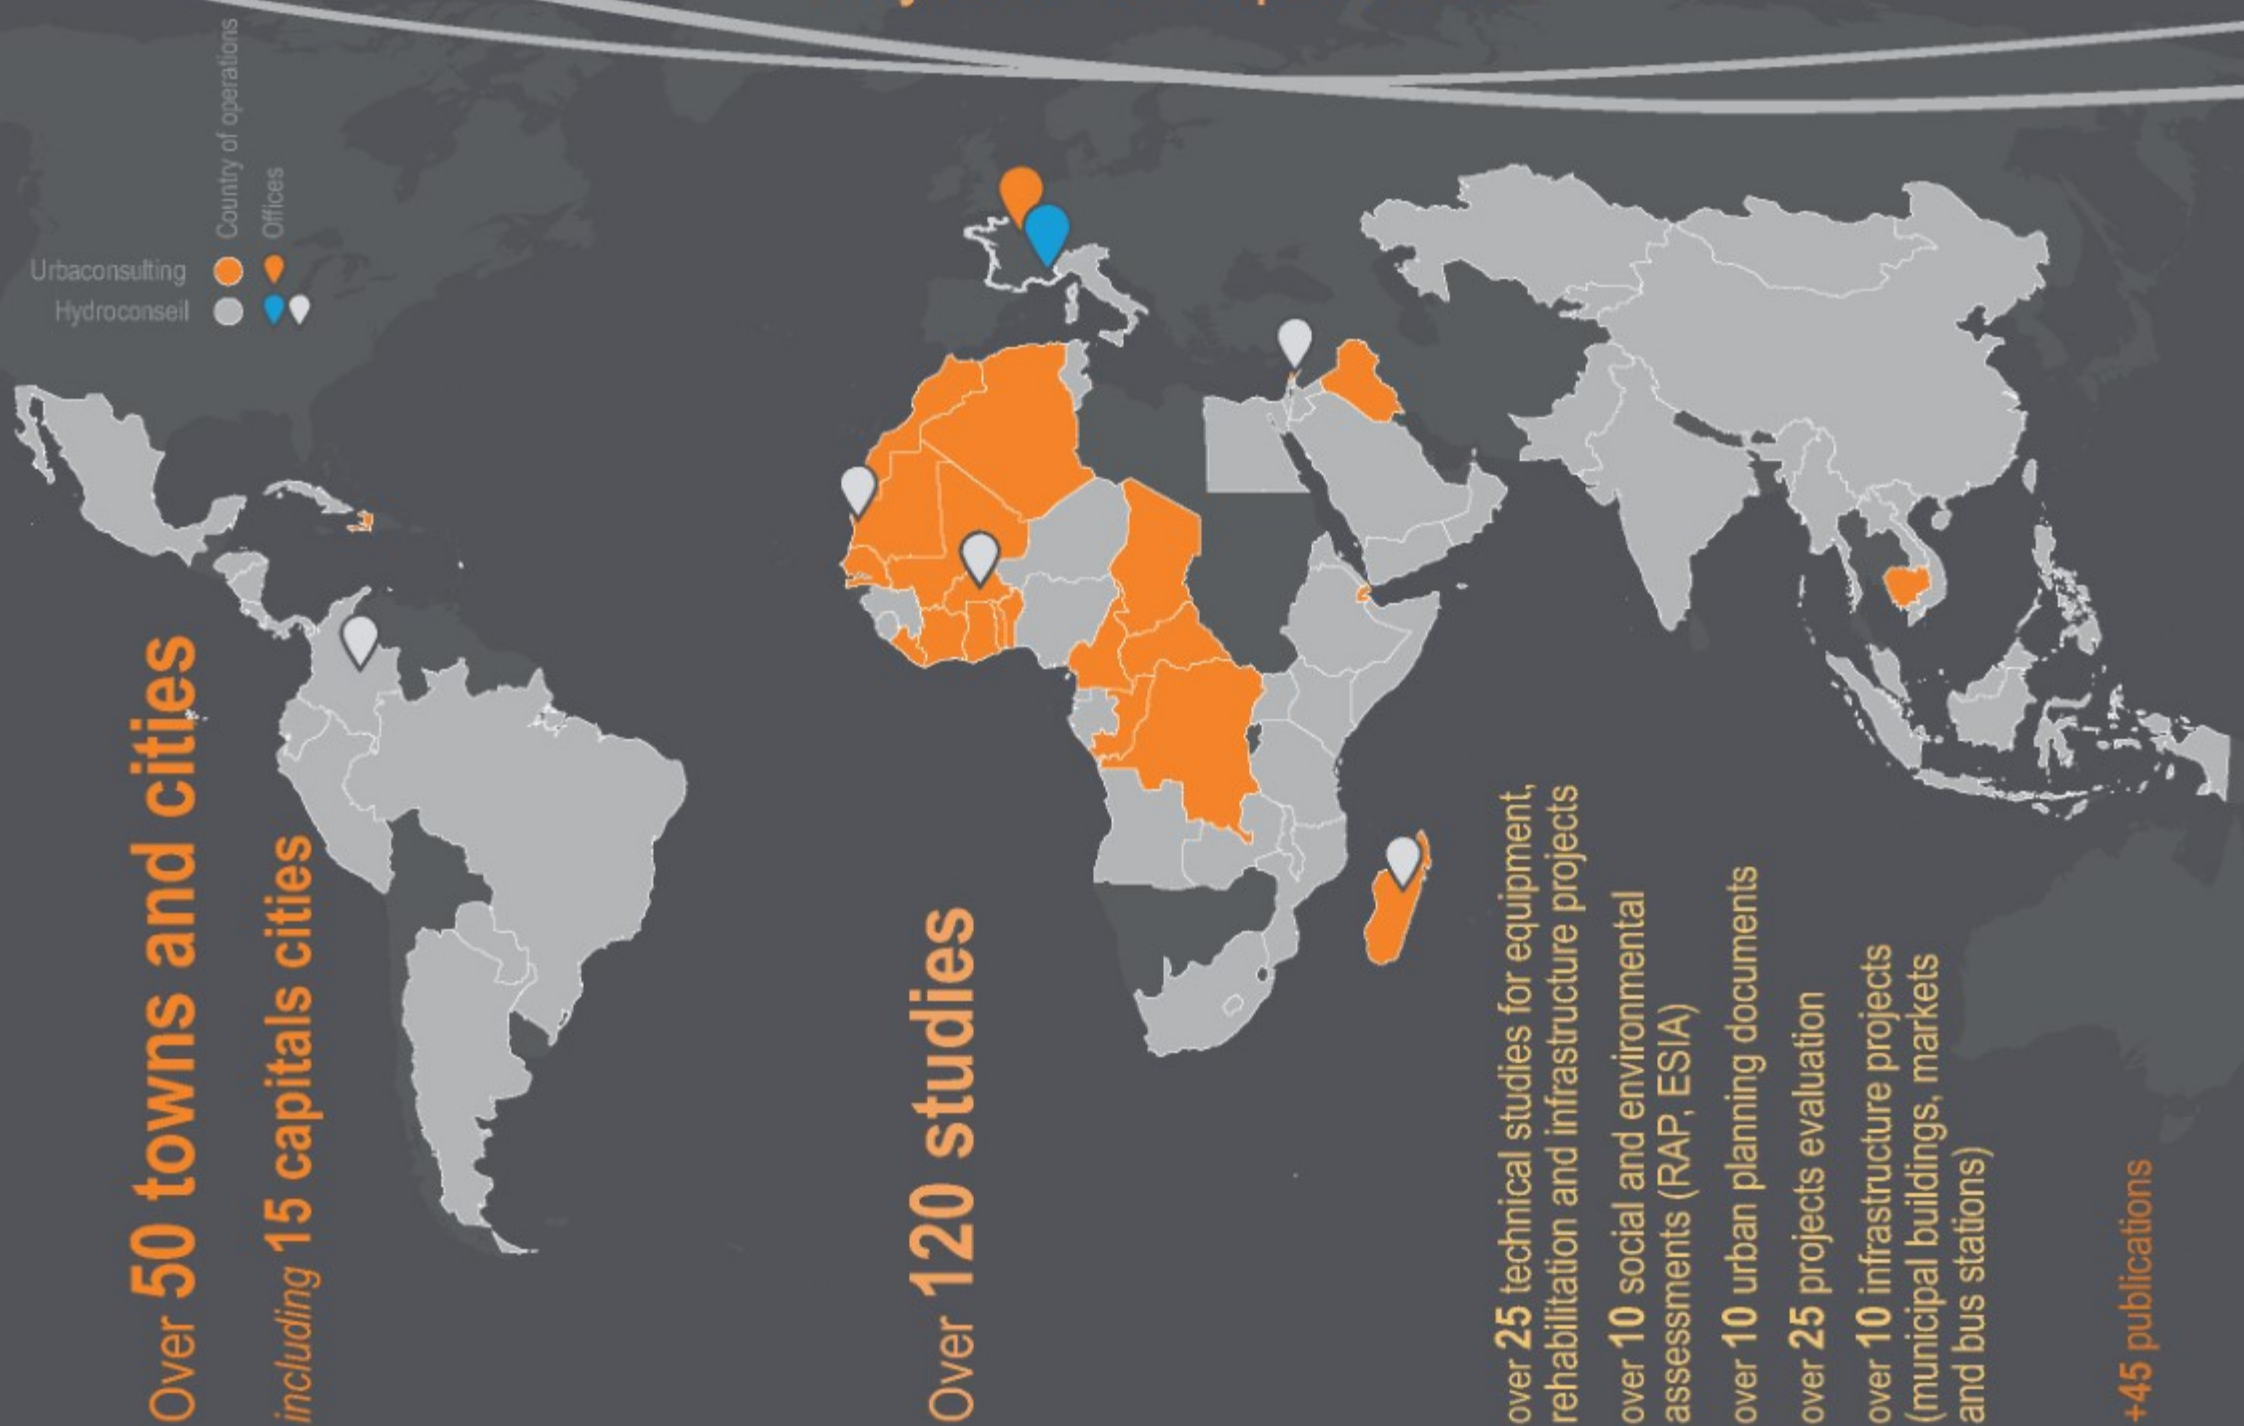

COLLABORATION & SHARING

We systematically work with local partners when conducting our assignments. We enjoy relationships of trust with all our partners and share common values.

Our Partners

Our team has built up a strong network of experts, both in France and abroad, with whom we have forged special relationships. The close working relationships that we have developed with our local partners, in particular, ensure our teams are diverse, complementary and have an in-depth understanding of local issues.

Strengthened by our membership of the Global Development Group, we are able to call upon the skills and network of Hydroconseil to further enhance the services we offer. Founded in 1995, Hydroconseil specialises in conducting studies to improve water supply, sanitation and adaptation to climate change in emerging and developing countries.

All of the cross-cutting support functions (business development, administrative and financial management, communication and human resources management) are overseen by 2 departments that ensure the smooth daily running of the Group, help improve its visibility and maintain the good relationships that we enjoy with all our partners.
